THE HATTER

The Hatter

1943

ANNUAL PUBLICATION OF STETSON
UNIVERSITY . . . DeLAND, FLORIDA

DELPHENE COVERSTON Editor-in-Chief
F. A. LeROY BARKSTROM Business Manager

DEDICATION

With a feeling of pride and humility this year's HATTER is dedicated to you men of Stetson who have answered our country's call to arms. We are proud of your deeds wherever you may be, whatever you may be doing, and humble because we cannot show our appreciation in a greater sense. It is our fervent hope that the powers above will see fit to return you to us, safe and victorious, to live in the land you are now defending.

FOREWORD

To students of all ages college has meant a prolongation of youth, a period in which ideals are stabilized, and a time to be remembered as the best in life. Despite the world at war Stetson students have gone forward much as before—the atrocities of an outside uncertain reality tending only to bring us closer together. In the HATTER of 1943 you see reflected the lightheartedness of youth that can never be suppressed in a free country. We hope you like it.

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Despite war conditions, the session 1942-'43 has been one of the best in Stetson's history. Morale has been high. The scholarship record has been upheld. Students and faculty members have given their utmost to assist the Government in its war effort. At the same time, they have maintained the highest educational standards. Stetson thus continues to go forward.

I take this opportunity to extend greetings and good wishes to the students and to the Stetson Family everywhere.

Sincerely,

WILLIAM SIMS ALLEN, President.

WE ARE THINKING OF YOU

The HATTER this year is dedicated to you, the men and women of Stetson who are serving in the armed forces of the United States of America. Proudly we salute you, Stetsonians—graduate and undergraduate, who have gone from us in order to take up arms in defense of our country. We want you to know this: We are thinking of you.

If you think you are forgotten, you are wrong. We have no opportunity to forget. You are with us each time we see a uniform. You are just above us all day long, as Navy trainers circle overhead from dawn to dusk. You are close by as long Army convoys roar up and down the Boulevard. We cannot escape our thoughts of you—we do not want to escape them.

What are we doing in your absence, then? We are doing as usual. We go to classes; we attend the fraternity and sorority dances; we read Wednesday's Reporter; we celebrate Sadie Hawkins' Day; we sing in Chapel the songs you used to sing with us—we sing a few new ones, though, for you: Anchors Aweigh, The Caissons Go Rolling Along, the Marine Hymn. We do all these things because they are the things to do, because they are the things you want us to do. We do all these things because we are thinking of you.

Some of us shall join you soon. We are waiting for that as much as we are waiting for anything. There will be fewer of us to remember more of you. But the few will remember. Be sure of that.

Our debt to you grows greater each day. If you do not think of your services as a debt, we do. For you are fighting, not to kill and destroy, but to preserve the very thing for which Stetson stands. This is not the first time men and women

ACTIVITIES

On February 13, Pi Kappa Delta sponsored the Sixth Annual State Practice Forensic Tournament, at which the University of Florida, Florida Southern, St. Petersburg Junior College, Rollins, the University of Miami, and Florida State College for Women were present.

The season was closed with the traditional intramural debate tournament.

FORENSIC SEASON

The State practice Meet was held here for the sixth time. Six of Florida's outstanding schools participated in the tournament.

Burdine represented Stetson in extemporaneous taking first place.

Griffin took part in the non-competitive after dinner speaking.

Lewis, Barkstrom, Mansur, Overton, Hartman, Lupfer, Smith, and Reese were representatives in debate.

The Speaker's Bureau which was established last year was discontinued because of the war and traveling difficulties.

AT EASE!!!

Stetson goes forward through war and taxes! We've had changes but have accepted them as a matter of course and gone on about our business . . . still typically collegiate. September 15, and maybe there weren't quite as many Freshmen as usual but the ones who were here were just as lost, just as homesick, just as green as are the usual Freshmen! Upperclassmen falling into each other's arms with shouts of delight. . . . Wonder if I'll ever get to know all these people . . . finally a friend—a freshman adviser . . . life looks brighter. Orientation Week advances . . . everybody talking to you, giving you advice, showing you the ropes, cheering you up. Even registration was a laughing matter—after it was over. Freshman Talent Night wound up the week and went over big with Bud Dickinson as master of ceremonies . . . followed by the upperclassmen performing in Chaudoin parlors, and everyone really felt swell. But alas, sad reality crept in—classes started. . . . Freshmen discovered there were such things as rat caps, buttoning, rat courts, paddles—Must I go on? The girls dressed for "tea" at the upper classmen's request. Air raid — sandspurs — life really isn't one rose-colored haze. Then, rushing . . . pledging . . . ribbons . . . it's all Greek to me.

If your best boyfriend collapses in your arms, or if the campus hero stumbles around muttering about the cursed fate (250-yard obstacle course) that makes their bones ache and cry out in agony, be not worried . . . merely a part of the new physical fitness program that has recently been inaugurated. Calisthenics do their part to make the girls actually creak when traveling up or down stairs. Not much actual collapsing but plenty of muttering. Rumors that Sadie Hawkins Day is undecided set the whole campus to buzzing. The buzz grew to a roar and finally a decisive shout, "more Li'l Abner!!" In the midst of all the Sadie Hawkins Day stew, the Little Theatre gave us "The Curtain Rises"—its first presentation and good as usual. Fourteen students were picked for Who's Who and congratulations were flying around. . . . Then all the boys followed Porky's lead and settled down to the serious business of growing a beard. By the time the day arrived there were really some beauties on campus—as far as beautiful beards go—which is a matter of opinion. . . . Feminine football practices, committee meetings, rehearsals . . . finally, "Arsenic and Old Lace" opened the hilarious week-end. CHARGE!—Sadie Hawkins Day was the usual bedlam—upperclassmen won the field-meet-soooooo rat caps till Christmas—Avent as Marrying Sam—President Lewis—treat the women rough and make 'em like it. Banquet in the slop house—then to the opry house—pork chops and Daisy Maes.

Maybe no annual this year . . . priorities and expenses reared their ugly heads. Stetsonites assessed themselves an extra buck and the HATTER's future was assured. Plenty of work ahead for Daffy and Barky. No turkey-time holidays this year but thankfulness prevailed with a banquet feast in the Commons. Talk begun about Stetson Memorial for men in service . . . work started on the Opera, "Hansel and Gretel"—a real success. The "Messiah" was given for the eighth time in Elizabeth Hall Auditorium . . . Christmas parties and dances—holidays at last. Vacation . . . and then back to school to recover. Navy men swarming everywhere—set your sails, girls, its anchors aweigh. . . . Blackout in the middle of Peden's recital . . . exams ('nuff said) and a graduating class of twenty-one. . . . A few days of rest and relaxation—then second semester registration . . . senior recitals . . . basketball games with the Naval Base . . . clipped hair and peroxide are definitely "in" . . . the Glee Club and the All Girl Orchestra plus Mansur made their Red Cross contribution. The boys kept leaving in response to Uncle Sam's request . . . miss ya. Spring, and the love bug observed no union hours—dazzling rocks on three out of every four girls' fingers: Odum, French, Harper, Powers, Howell, Arnold—just to mention a few . . . practically reached the stages of an epidemic . . . pins also on the loose . . . constant Pi Kap serenades.

No law school next year—all the male law students are busy winning a very important case of their Uncle Sammy. "The Barretts" was presented and came through with flying colors . . . then, William Saroyan's "Afton Water." Politics here . . . campaigning hot and heavy . . . majority ruled. Priorities curbed the usual wiener roasts and boat rides, but hikes, bikes, and buses took their places. Spring vacation was gratefully, gleefully greeted by all . . . Shakespeare's annual appearance. Visits of former Stetson men now in uniform became everyday occurrences. Finally, cramming, exams, term papers, parallel—then graduation, packing, good-byes, and summer vacation for some, summer school for others, armed services, married life. . . . Next year is just around the corner with its memories to be!

have taken up arms to defend their institutions, but this is the first time our institutions have been seriously threatened by an enemy that is haunted already by the ghosts of a thousand fallen institutions which could not protect themselves, or which were overwhelmed by the implacable hatred of men who cannot build as well. Between the enemy and the Stetsons you stand. We shall not forget that.

We had rather have you here with us. You belong with us. But you have given us up in order to serve us. We have let you go by accepting your services. You are our personal guarantee that we believe in what we have. We are your personal guarantee that you will come back to what you left. Soldier, sailor, marine, Coast Guardsman, worker, housewife, merchant, student, all of us are bound together in a fight for preservation. None of us will let you down; all of us maintain the same idea—the idea of the Stetsons of America.

You are willing to die for us; we are willing to live for you. That is what we hope we are doing: living for you. For what is the purpose of your fighting if it is not to come back to the things you left behind? And how can your mission be accomplished unless we live for you? Do you think we shall forget a willing creditor who lends us his life asking nothing in return but our preservation?

All these things we know—and we hope that you know. And when you have a moment, think of us. For we shall always be thinking of you.
